Keep What Is Yours

Your good things have your name on them. Keep it that way.

Have you ever been so close to a big win? Then it slipped away? And someone else got the exact thing you wanted? The same job. The same friend. The same luck.

Many people have a name for this. This little book gives you quick, quiet ways to guard your path. Each one takes 5 minutes or less.

What Is Destiny Swapping?

Destiny swapping is a spiritual belief. It says your path can be stolen or traded.

Your path means your good luck, your chances, your friends, your gifts, and your timing.

People say it can happen through jealousy, tricks, or rituals. They say it can also happen when someone gets close to your energy, your words, or your things.

Signs People Talk About

- You almost win, again and again. The door closes at the last second.
- Someone close to you gets ahead in the exact spot where you are stuck.
- You feel foggy or heavy after time with a certain person.
- You dream that you lose, trade, or give away something special.

Maybe you see it as a spiritual fight. Maybe you see it as plain jealousy. Either way, the first step is the same: guard your doors.

WAY 1 · 1 MINUTE

Seal the Morning

Before you look at your phone, say your name out loud. Then claim your day:

"What is mine comes to me. What is not mine leaves me."

The first words of your day set the tone. Make them yours.
